Two men in suits are seated on the left side of the stage, facing the center.

A man in a dark uniform stands at a wooden podium on the stage, addressing the group.

A group of approximately 15-20 young men and women are lined up on the stage, some with their heads bowed in a gesture of respect or prayer.

Two small signs are visible in the background, one with the word "CITY" and another with "MTR".

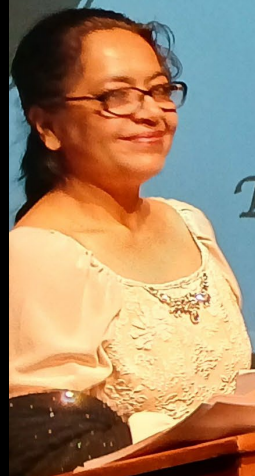

A person in the audience is holding a small book or certificate.
